

BMA Foundation for Medical Research Grants available in 2018

Below is a list of research grants that will be awarded by the BMA Foundation in 2018. Online applications will open on 1 January 2018 and close on 02 March 2018.

Doris Hillier – £50,000

To assist research into rheumatism and arthritis. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners and a member of the BMA.

T P Gunton – £50,000

To assist research into public health relating to cancer. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK.

H C Roscoe – £50,000

To promote research into the elimination of the common cold and/or other viral diseases of the human respiratory system. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK.

Helen H Lawson – £50,000

To promote research into novel technologies and/or organisational systems to assist in patient care, primary care or public health. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners and a member of the BMA.

Dawkins and Strutt – £60,000

To assist research into multimorbidity in an ageing population. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK. Projects must relate to the UK only.

Josephine Lansdell – £50,000

To assist research in the field of heart disease. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners and a member of the BMA.

Margaret Temple – £50,000

To assist research into schizophrenia. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK. Projects must relate to the UK only.

Kathleen Harper – £50,000

To assist research into the impact of working pressures on the medical profession. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK.

The James Trust – £65,000

To assist research into asthma. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners and a member of the BMA.

Vera Down – £50,000

To assist research into neurological disorders. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners and a member of the BMA.

The Scholarship Grant – £50,000

To assist research into evaluation of the effectiveness of reasonable adjustments (as required by the Equality Act) for patients with learning disabilities, especially the additional communication skills and communication tools needed to enhance their health literacy and their compliance with investigations and treatment. Applicants must be UK-registered medical practitioners or research scientists working in the UK.

For further information on the BMA Foundation for Medical Research please visit www.bmafoundationmr.org.uk

If you would like to receive alerts about the BMA Foundation grants or find out more information about the 2018 grants available, please email researchgrants@bma.org.uk

BMA Foundation for Medical Research

www.bmafoundationmr.org.uk